STEINMAN, Floyd-Life is only a precious memory and if we leave with good memories and no regrets, we did it right. Floyd left us with many good memories. Floyds family wish to thank the many doctors that took great care of him during his battle with brain cancer at the Juravinski Hospital, his family doctors, Dr. Jones and Dr. Moore and the kind gentle care at the Stratford Rotary Hospice. “ Floyd was one of the good guys in the farm equipment industry. He was well liked and respected by all he came in contact with. We first became friends when we were competitors and later as co-workers. I always had great respect for Floyd am glad to have known him for many years. He will be missed.

“ My sympathy to Floyd's family. I was a farm equipment dealer many years ago. Floyd came as a salesman for Waterloo Manufacturing Ltd. He was about more than selling. He was considerate and helpful in his association with me, he was the ultimate gentleman. I attended his 80th birthday celebration in 2017. He still remembered me. I was impressed.

“ Dear Anna Mae and family - We were deeply saddened to hear this about half an hour ago. We treasured our friendship over the years, both in Ontario and Arizona. Floyd was one of those "extra special, kind hearted and generous" person who loved his family very much. Sending hugs, prayers and love during this difficult time.

“ I was sad to hear of Floyd's illness and passing. Floyd and I met through the farm equipment industry and he became a friend. He was always a positive, decent influence among his associates, lovingly devoted to his wife and family and religion, and an asset to his employer. He made a lasting impression on me for good and I'm glad to know him. My thoughts are with Anna Mae, children and friends, who I know are missing him deeply.
