“ My father was a good singer. The last morning when he was in his home in Milbank, he sang parts of 'Oh when shall I see Jesus". At Crescent Care he sang 'Rock of Ages". Memories of Dad include the passing of my two sons. One of the last times, Timothy was to visit Grandpa's, we sang together, 'My Heavenly home is bright and fair... I'm going Home to die no more." Nathaniel, in his preschool years, loved to ride in the cab tractor to cultivate. Now, I envision the three at rest, from their earthly sufferings, enjoying the beautiful place God prepared for those that love Him.
