“ I met Cheryl 12 years ago and we remained friends ever since. She was a true friend in every sense of the word, through the good times, and the bad. I will miss her smile, her hugs, our talks (she always made me laugh,) I will always value our friendship. With an aching heart, my thoughts go out to Mike, Alex, and the rest of her family and friends. Cheryl, can't believe you're gone so soon, I will never forget you. "This I will remember, when the rest of life is through, the finest thing I've ever done is simply loving you."TINA

“ I met Cheryl through her best friend forever Wendy. Cheryl was so lovely, kind and thoughtful. She was definitely her own woman, spirited and fun. I knew she loved deeply and was so very loved. She had character and strength and thought of others before herself. I thought of these lines from the poem High Flight by Patrick Magee.

*Oh! I have slipped the surly bonds of earth,
And danced the skies on laughter-silvered wings;
Sunward I've climbed, and joined the tumbling mirth*

*And, while with silent lifting mind I've trod
The high untrespassed sanctity of space,
Put out my hand, and touched the face of God.*

*My prayers to Alex and Mike.
Requiescat in pace, dear Angel.

“ I feel honoured to have known such a kind and caring woman like Cheryl. I had the privilege of working with her last year, and she turned every day into one full of light and laughter and always put a smile on the faces of those around her. The world will be missing a truly wonderful soul.

My deepest condolences to her friends and family in this challenging time, especially to her husband-to-be Michael, and her son Alex, whom she always spoke of so lovingly and proudly.

I was very sad to hear of Cheryl's passing. It's been so many years since we had seen each other. We used to get together often and enjoy dinners and good conversation. I always hoped for the best for her and her son Alex. My heartfelt sympathy goes out to those she left to mourn. May you all find peace in your memories of time together.
