“ All the Staff and Residents at Underhill Residential Home will miss David. David held a special place in the hearts of all he met. He was a warm, kind soul that always had a hug for us. We will forever be grateful for knowing David and having him be a part of our lives. We also want to say that rarely do we see a family that is so very kind and caring like the family that David had.

Our very deepest condolences.

“ I remember one year I heard my name on the radio wishing me a Happy Birthday and wondered who could have done this. I found out it was David. He always remembered many peoples birth dates and other special occasions. He often had horoscope advise too. Was always a pleasure chatting with him and catching up on how many nickels he had collected to date. I often saved my 1968 nickels to give to him when I would see him at a baseball game :). Sending peace and love to the family.
