“ I just found out that Doug passed away. I have many great memories of Doug and am very sorry to hear of his passing. I know he touched many lives. I remember Doug running into my house without knocking and asking where my Mom's purse was. I told him and he grabbed it and ran out, saying that my Mom had been hurt but to stay there and he'd keep me posted. Mom had broken her ankle with a compound fracture after leaving the Aiton's home at night next door to ours. Mom had crawled back to Doug's door and Doug had helped Mom get to the hospital and get the help she needed. When he told me to stay put it was to save me from seeing the bone sticking out of my Mom's leg. Thank you, Doug.

“ It was a privilege to have known Doug. I remember one time Annette was teaching a Relief Society lesson and she spoke of Doug helping her. She was doing a cross word puzzle and the question was - What is a one armed bandit? He knew it was a slot machine. The letters nicely fit in the space provided. Doug will be missed.

“ I find myself speaking of Brother Doug Aiton quite often. When speaking in church or class all the way down here in Arizona, I will trek stories of our families home teacher - Brother Doug Aiton. This was almost 40 years ago, so this should tell you the kind of man that Doug was, and the kind of impact that he had on people. He was a great man one-of-a-kind really.

“ A great man who always seemed to tell it like it was, but then had that smirk on his face. He will be remembered. Karen and I express our deepest sympathy to the whole family. Bob and Karen Ayers
