“ I remember fondly the times through the years when we enjoyed those wonderful honey-dipped donuts and homemade root beer that Esther would bring to the helpers, whether you were helping with the haying or picking stones, mmm good. So many fond memories of our family with yours. All our Love, Brad and Sharon Mavin

“ *God's comfort and our sympathy to the family....
My memories of Esther take me back to school girl days. I so often had to run over to 'Ohmers to phone', because someone at school was sick or some other message had to be passed on. It may have been annoying to have school children at your door asking to use the phone every other day, tramping in dirt and snow, interrupting a busy young mother, but Esther was always so sweet, friendly and obliging. I think we always left with a smile because she gave us such cheerful attention, as if we were important to her. I think that talent, of making other people feel valued, was one of her gifts from God, that she used for His honour.
May God be with you,
Ruthann (Wagler) Jantzi*
