“ I remember fondly my times spent as a child on the Schieckoff farm in St Agatha. After church on Sunday we 'd pile in the van and head out for an afternoon of games, crafts, exploring and a delicious dinner. While us kids played games in the tv room, you could here Mr Schieckoff working in his shop reupholstering furniture. After my parents divorced Mr and Mrs Schieckoff still had my dad and us out to the farm and that meant so much to me. It was a safe, familiar and welcoming place. Rest in peace Mr Schieckoff and thank you to the entire Schieckoff family for your kindness. ~Lisa Weiler Haskins (Larry Weiler's daughter)
