“ Keeping you all in my thoughts as I remember Aunt Laurine. I can still remember the summers up at the McDermotts when I was a child. You always felt welcome and loved. Aunt Laurine was such a special person who was always putting everyone a head of herself. She will be missed by so many. She is the mold of how we should all live our lives with her caring soul, and helping nature. God just hit the jackpot when he called her home.

Love to you all Marie and Mark Sanders (aka Diamanti)

“ Dear family members,
Laurine was a wonderful sister to Lea and a lifelong friend to Agnes.
She was a very friendly and very kind person and will be fondly remembered by all.
Sending you our deepest sympathy.
