“ Our Condolences to all of Mabel's family.....always sad to say goodbye,,BUT hers was a long life to be celebrated....Mabel loved people and always welcomed a chat in person or by letter.. I remember her glorious "Snow on the Mountain" flowers in her front yard...rest in peace Mabel...wrap yourselves in all the warm memories for comfort...Avis & Alan Murray London (aunt and uncle to Pauline and Judy)

“ I have been a part of the Poole Church visitation team the past 4 years. I was able to see Mabel in her home in Wellesley, at Brunner and chats with her on the phone when she was at Knollcrest.
She was always pleasant to visit with and happily told us stories of her life. Mabel always wanted us to enjoy refreshments with her when we visited and always made us feel at home.
I will miss our visits, Ruth Bahr
