“ Hi cousins. I am so sad to hear that Auntie Marg is gone. I have so many memories of being at the farm (especially eating peas in the garden instead of picking them). She was a great lady. I cherish my memories of her and Uncle Norb and growing up with you guys. Time sure flies - I have been "out west" for 35 years and have three grandchildren now. God Bless you all with healing and good memories.

Love Nancy

“ how to say goodbye to my Grandma Hergott? I really don't want to: so i will say this instead. Grandma i am so very proud to be one of your grandsons and that i was able to spend a lot of time with you from a young boy right up until the age of 17. You left a permanent mark in my soul and in my character. I will forever work at honoring our family name and make sure to always keep you proud. I am so grateful and thankful that Jennifer and all of my kids not only got to meet you but also have had the time to develop their own personal memories and stories of you. MY kids one day, no doubt will be able to share those stories and memories with their own kids. All of those weekends at the farm were the best times of my young life with out a doubt. I never Ever heard you say a bad word about anybody my entire life. That is a very tough thing to do in this world for sure. I will try to remember that everyday.

Things i remember This will be rambley and all over the place but here it goes anyway.

I will absolutely miss your amazing cooking. We always ate like Kings and nothing ever tasted bad. Your apple betty was the best on earth hands down. I have fawn memories of spending literally all day picking and shucking peas, picking and breaking up the beans from your massive garden. ( I think every year you had Grandpa make it a little bigger on us). And man that apple orchard!!! great apples for your apple betty and Grandpas cider, i really did enjoy picking all of those apples with you. Even stacking an entire hay wagon full of firewood for the farm house was fun for me. You had a massive fireplace in that old house. You were always so bubbly, funny and crazy. smiling and laughing all of the time. Our family get togethers were always something I looked forward to. I think it has been something like 30 yrs Grandpa has been waiting for you so i guess it was your time to move on.

Rest In Peace Grandma Hergott
