“ Lois and I send our sincere condolences to you, Debbie and Paul. We have such great memories of your mother and father. We met them at Fairhaven Conference Centre in the early 1970's and have been good friends ever since. After your dad's passing in 1991, we tried to keep in touch with Margy whenever possible. We fondly remember her 95th birthday party in Dunnville. She looked great and her mind was as sharp as ever! Her knowledge of current events and politics always amazed me. You both can be very proud of your mother. She was an outstanding Christian and very proud Canadian. Thanks very much Paul for keeping us posted during your mom's last days.

“ My condolences to Debbie and Paul. We knew Margy and Glen as neighbours in Dunnville. Margy was the epitome of a classy lady...always well dressed and well spoken, and never an unkind word. Lots of fun memories of trick-or-treating as kids. When I was ten or so (1978) I began spending a lot of time with Margy's dad: Ed Hanna who lived next door, and who was in his nineties, until he passed in '85. A really colourful guy! I also remember fondly; Margy's sister Grace and her husband Albert Pond. From Lawrence Hopman.

“ Aunt Margy was very special to our family. She was like our second mother. We will miss her smile that greeted us each time we met and the care and concern she showed for all of us. She truly was an amazing woman. She will always remain in our hearts.

“ I got to know Margy and her family through my relationship with Betty & David Lindsay in the mid 1980s. Throughout the years I have come to know and respect her energy and enthusiasm for life and her love and caring for her family. She is the same age as my mother and has been a wonderful role model for those of her vintage. My heart and prayers are with her family at this time.

“ Fond memories of Margy. She and my Mom kept in touch regularly since they were both tragically widowed in 1944. On Mom's death she continued to write to me and I valued her friendship, and the meetings we had both in Canada and Scotland. God Bless. From Hilda
