“ I was very saddened on hearing the news of Marjorie's death. Marjorie was my teacher through most of my years at Burnside Public School. As I remembered Marjorie over the years, I always had warm memories of this very gifted teacher. Under her guidance and tutelage, we were grounded as individuals and we could move forward confidently on our journey through life. I will always feel indebted to Marjorie for her excellent teaching skills. I am a better person because our paths crossed. She was a very special person. I know she will be greatly missed by everyone who knew her.

A very grateful student,
Gerald Cook

Dear Carolyn & Family:

May God bless you and comfort you during this difficult time.

Marjorie shared her talent and passion for music with her family, her friends and her community.

My heart goes out to you.

Marjorie is now playing music in a higher place, for God.

Marjorie is watching over her loved ones with the biggest grin on her face!

“ I am at a loss for words! I will always "Mrs. Mohr" as a person who had a zest for life, always a smile to share, and her musical abilities, just one of her many talents. I feel very blessed to have had her as a teacher and a friend.
To the family, may the many pleasant memories sustain you and God grant you the courage during this most difficult time. My sincerest condolences.
