

Norman Kuepfer

July 22, 1928 - October 22, 2023

KUEPFER, Norman-October 22, 2023

On Sunday morning in his 96th year Norm went to reunite with his loving wife of 70 years Wilma, who he deeply missed for the past 18 months. He leaves behind 4 cherished Children and their Spouses Gwen and Gerald Neeb, Ross and Bev Kuepfer, Sheila and Mark Goodwin, and Grant Kuepfer. As well as 7 Grandchildren and their families - Michael, Ang, Alice, Edward, and Vivian Neeb; Christine, Mark, Wesley, and Roland Billard; Valerie, Curtis, Benjamin, and Zachery Schierholtz; Nick, Marlene, Norah, Hayes, and Earl Kuepfer; Michelle Kuepfer and Shaun Lacroix; Wade, Megan, Seth, and Jax Goodwin; Clay, Brittney, Lincoln, and Evan Goodwin. He will be dearly missed by his brother-in-law Harold and his wife Violet May Erb, as well as many nieces and nephews. Predeceased by his Parents Nicolas and Elizabeth Kuepfer; Father and Mother-in-law Moses and Mary Erb; Brothers Eugene (Madeline) Kuepfer, Milton (Eva) Kuepfer, Clendon (Ruth) Kuepfer, Sister Millie (Ivan) Zehr; Brothers-in-law Milton (Marjorie) Erb, Alvin (Annie) Erb, Sister-in-law Leona (Earl) Paddington; Nephews Oran Erb and Ron Zehr.

Norm was a proud, hard-working farmer for the majority of his adult life. He ate, slept, and breathed “the farm” which was his favorite topic of conversation during every visit while reminiscing about the “good old days”. He instilled a strong sense of family devotion and work ethic in each of us. We will miss your smile, quick wit, keen sense of humor and colourful stories - but hold those memories fondly in our hearts and minds forever. We find ourselves

“focusing our eyes around” searching for a sign that you made your final trip safely, where you are enjoying your reunion and happily tending farm on the other side. A private family celebration of life and interment of ashes will follow at a later date. In lieu of flowers and as an expression of sympathy donations to Canadian Cancer Society or Alzheimer Society of Canada would be appreciated. Until we meet again – keep the checkerboard warm, love “the kids”.

“ Deepest Sympathy to the Kuepfer family. Living on the 9th line of Wellesley, Norman being a pallbearer for my father George Crummer, we knew Norman very well. Shirley Eickmeyer

“ So many fond memories when visiting Wilma and Norman's family on the farm. Norman's cheerful manner, always teasing us kids. Wilma made the best popcorn for us. Many happy times playing games and visiting.

My father Clayton said, Norman was his best friend because he could always make everyone laugh.

Norman would keep very detailed records in his book. Dad would always say check your book! He would get his notes out, then it would be settled on weather and crops.

Norman made the world a brighter place.

Sincerely, Suzanne McLaughlin (Stever)

“ My deepest sympathy to all of the Kuepfer families. “Grandpa” as even I called him, was a remarkable man with much wisdom. I enjoyed all the times I was around him and blessed to have known him. My thoughts and prayers are with you.

“ So many fond memories of Uncle Norm and Auntie Wilma! Visiting your home for holidays as a kid, eating meals together in the sunny kitchen on the home farm. His comment with a big grin “That smells like money!” when he was spreading manure or cleaning stables, is one our own kids learned on country drives. The fun of visiting back and forth when we were all young, and seeing your parents at two family gatherings because we are doubly related. Norm’s big grin whenever he said “ hello Gracey.” As he grew older he actually got shorter than me, so I teased him about being a cute little fella. Your Dad was a very special guy, and I will miss him. Thinking of your family and praying for you all in your loss and grief. Love Gracey Kuepfer Niezen
