“ Dear Debbie and Gary and family--Your Dad was a beautiful gift to me so many years ago. I first met him the night my mother died (48 years ago). He was at the hospital waiting with our current pastor when I arrived with my uncle. I still remember him there and I was only 5. He became our pastor shortly after and he and your Mom were such tender, gracious and warm-hearted people. They loved me/our family so deeply. I have seen your dad at times over the years and have always been grateful for each reunion. He's with your Mom (and my Mom) now!! Most of all, he is with his Jesus whom he loved and served throughout his life. May you be warmed by memories and at peace with the knowledge of His presence with Jesus and other loved ones. Love, Juanita Ogilvie (Lichti)
