“ Today I found out about Terry's passing. My condolences to his wife Terry. We was, and on the other side. still is a great guy. He had a great laugh, when he Laughed all of him laughed. I was working in Rexdale many Years ago, shared the gospel of Jesus Christ with him. He was baptised thereafter into The Church of Jesus Christ of Latter-Day Saints. He served a faithful mission. Prior to his mission I married and moved away. My prayers go out to his family and Friends. Please keep remembering This terrific man.

“ While I never had the pleasure of meeting Terry, as a life long leaf fan, I can understand his frustration. At least, in his younger years, he was able to see his beloved Leafs raise the Stanley Cup.
