“ Growing up in Linwood was wonderful. Ed and Vera's house was like a second home to me and as a young child I spent time there most every day. I remember being totally mesmerized by Vera...so beautiful, always well dressed with perfectly manicured nails, a lipstick carousel with more shades than I could imagine and all those wigs. As a youngster, I was particularly impressed by the speed with which she could remove her shoe and the accuracy with which she could aim, throw and hit Eddie, who seemed to be a safe distance away, when he was teasing her too much! My mother told me that her aim was so good because she was such a great outfielder and, in spite of her tiny stature, was a formidable opponent when Linwood played Newton in baseball. She made the most delicious chilli sauce and her cucumber salad was simply the best. I will always treasure my memories of her.
